

With our recent move to Suite 210 in the Nevada State Library, Archives & Public Records building (100 N. Stewart Street), you now have an opportunity to take advantage of a unique service through the Nevada Public Employees' Deferred Compensation Program (NDC). Local financial professionals from the NDC's contracted recordkeeper, Voya Financial®, will be onsite at the NDC Office every Tuesday to conduct individual, personal one-on-one appointments. Learn more about the representatives who are dedicated to Northern Nevada.

Connor Jamerson

Representative, Northern Nevada*

916-804-2462, connor.jamerson@voya.com

Connor Jamerson is a Nevada resident and has been providing retirement services in the Reno area since 2019. He is a graduate of the University of Nevada, Reno and holds a Bachelor of Science in Business with a major in Management. Connor also holds his Series 6, 63, and State of Nevada Life and Health Licenses. Connor provides enrollment and investment education to employees in Northern Nevada.

John Verducci

Representative, Northern Nevada*

775-741-4436, john.verducci@voya.com

John Verducci is a native Nevada resident and has been providing retirement services in the Reno area since 2018. He is a graduate of the University of Nevada, Reno and holds a Bachelor of Science in Business with a major in Finance and a minor in Economics. John also holds his Series 6, 63, 65 and State of Nevada Life and Health Licenses. John provides enrollment and investment education to employees in Northern Nevada.

All NDC participants and State employees are encouraged to schedule an appointment, even if you are not yet enrolled in the Plan. Visit nvdeferredcomp.timetap.com and choose the NV Deferred Comp Office location to see a list of available dates and times.

It's never been easier to get help with enrolling and participating in the NDC Program. If you have any questions about finding our offices or your onsite meeting date, please contact the NDC Administrative Office at (775) 684-3398. Thank you for the opportunity to assist you on the journey to and through retirement.